

Parent Session: DON'Ts

- Constantly yelling at the ref and other players
- Calling out other kids besides their own
- Don't coach the kids
- No profanity
- No artificial noise
- Parents making comments about other kids
- Arguing with the refs calls
- Arguing with other parents
- Trying to coach instead of support the team
- Violence
- No cowbells
- Yelling of frustration
- Arguing with the referees
- Don't tell the coaches they can't do their job
- Don't fight with other parents or kids
- parents trash-talking to kids
- screaming over a bad call
- don't yell at kids on the opposing team
- don't get in a fight with parents on the opposing team
- Parents making the game about themselves
- Arguing with officials
- Questioning coaching
- don't yell at the opposing team
- Don't yell at the kids on either team
- don't yell at your kid if not performing
- no bad language
- don't start altercations
- parents shouldn't fight
- Don't yell at coaches or refs
- Burning varsity jacket of opposing team
- Yelling at kids on the court or field
- Argue with other parents
- Parents yelling at coaches during the game
- Vandalize student's property
- Parents trying to "coach"
- Getting angry if their kid isn't playing/didn't make a team
- Don't cause a scene
- Don't attack players
- Leave the calls to the refs
- Don't target specific players
- Don't attack players mentally/physically
- Don't yell at refs leave the calls to them
- Don't fight with other parents
- Arguing with refs
- Targeting specific players from either team
- Fighting with other parents
- Arguing about playing time
- Arguing with other parents
- Screaming at refs
- Don't argue with refs
- Understand that kids make mistakes
- Step out if you're too worked up
- Don't argue with other parents
- Don't throw stuff on the court
- Key someone's car
- Slap another kid
- Scream at the refs
- Bad commentary
- Unhelpful yelling
- Be a distraction
- Don't Scream at the kids
- Don't try to coach the kids from the bleachers
- yelling at the other team
- yelling at the refs
- vandalizing the stadium
- yelling at the coaches/blaming them
- poor sportsmanship
- Yelling at kids or refs
- Parents trying to coach
- Poor sportsmanship
- Yelling at parents
- Screaming at your kid, making a mistake
- Yelling at the coach for your kid's PT
- yelling about calls that you don't understand
- coaching from the sidelines
- yelling about calls in general
- No yelling at the players
- No yelling at the coaches
- No yelling at the officials
- Yelling at other kids who are not you're own
- Let coaches coach
- Yelling at players/officials/coaches
- Don't get too involved with other players/coaches
- don't get too involved with the other team
- Don't argue with the referee
- You're there to support your kids
- Let coaches coach
- don't get into physical fights
- don't yell at refs, coaches, or players
- You aren't there to coach, you need to support
- Don't yell at players
- No yelling at the referee
- No fighting

- Yell at other players on the other team
- Argue with refs
- Embarrassing us
- Yelling at the coach/s
- Embarrassing us
- Don't yell at everyone
- Be passive-aggressive/ aggressive
- Letting disabled players get involved/ scoring a point
- Helping a hurt player
- Yelling at officials
- Be there to spectate and be respectful
- Don't yell at other parents
- Not everything is about your child
- Don't fight
- Let the players play
- Yelling at official
- Yelling at other players on the team
- Running on the court
- Parents don't get involved
- Not yelling at the other team(players)
- No cussing
- Don't get involved with the other team's parents
- don't yell
- don't cuss
- don't be physical
- don't yell at coaches
- want them to be supportive
- clean up bleachers after games
- Fighting
- Talking down on other kids
- Threatening coaches
- when parents call out players who aren't their child on both teams
- parents coming at the coaches during games
- don't yell at the players
- rude comments
- don't attack the coaches because of your kid
- When parents argue about bad calls that refs make.
- Parents yelling and cursing at the kids and officials
- scolding
- yelling from the stands rather than just cheering
- talking about kids
- trying to be the coach
- making a scene
- thinking their kid doesn't do anything wrong
- Trying to talk to you after a bad game
- Telling you how to play your game
- Yelling at coaches or officials
- Talking bad about you in front of people or other fans
- Trying to teach us how to play
- Acting like they know what's going on
- Insulting other players
- When parents yell at refs
- yelling at you or other teammates or getting too upset when someone makes a simple mistake
- Parents yelling/scolding players
- Parents coaching the players
- Telling the coaches how to coach
- Cheering for your child and not the whole team
- Thinking the ref is always wrong
- Making fun of the other team
- Yelling at the other team's parents
- Parents trash-talking
- Don't argue with ref
- Don't talk about someone else's kid
- Don't try to coach from the side/ don't argue with what the coach does
- Don't argue with other parents/cause unnecessary drama
- Don't yell at ref
- Let the coaches coach
- Don't argue with other parents
- Don't yell at the kids
- "Could've done better"
- Let the coaches coach
- Parents going at each other
- Represent the school well
- Yelling at refs and coaches
- Don't coach another team's kid
- Arguing with calls
- Arguing with parents from other teams
- Being aggressive
- Yelling at the student sections
- Setting unrealistic expectations. ("You can't do this unless you play well.")
- Yelling at other teammates
- Yelling at coaches
- Yelling at officials
- Yelling at other parents
- Yelling at kids playing
- Yelling at refs
- Yelling at coach
- Arguing with one another(parents from both teams), thinking a call is wrong

- Opposing parents having fist fights against each other over things that don't matter.
- Parents yelling at opposing players.
- Parents yelling at coaches for not putting in their kid.
- Parents tearing down other kids that aren't theirs
- Comments to the refs
- Comments to the coaches
- Argue with the ref
- Fighting with the ref
- Calling them blind
- Throwing popcorn and pop at them
- Saying the ref is dumb and stupid
- Not calling them greasy apes
- Don't yell obnoxious things at specific players
- Don't yell at the ref
- Don't be obnoxious
- Don't start fights
- Don't yell at individual players
- When the AD asks you to leave, leave peacefully
- Yell at the ref
- Throw stuff at the ref
- Touch the ref in a hurtful way
- Fight with parents
- Yell at coaches
- Don't be coaches.
- Don't scream at other teams or referees.
- Be inclusive and cheer for the team.
- Keep yelling to a minimum
- No chirping from the parents
- Cheer for everyone, not just your kid
- Cheer for my boys
- Stay seated
- Don't beef with the opponent's parents, keep that for the sections
- Argue with the ref
- Physical altercations
- body language
- Don't embarrass your player
- Trust the refs, they wouldn't make a bad call for no reason
- Yell at the refs
- Embarrassing the school
- Don't throw things
- Don't fight with other parents
- fights
- trying to be the coach or the ref when they're not
- intentionally targeting the opposing team or ref
- talking smack with people after the game
- Starting fights
- Throwing things
- Harassing players
- Foul language during the game/ directed towards players and refs
- Criticizing refs and coaches
- Don't yell at refs and players.
- Don't antagonize people.
- Don't throw things on the court/field/swimming pool.
- Do encourage people
- Do wait to bring up an issue
- Do be respectful
- Don't fight
- Don't yell at opposing team players, refs or parents
- Don't storm the court/field
- Don't pants kids
- Don't go into other teams locker room and steal things
- no offensive language
- Don't cause arguments
- Don't fight
- Stay respectful
- Don't steal crap
- Don't fight
- Don't heckle the refs
- Don't throw things
- Don't single out players on opposing teams
- Don't try to coach from the stands
- Don't yell at players for messing up
- Don't create a scene
- Yelling at specific players
- Telling coaches what to do
- Yelling at refs
- Cussing/offensive language
- Booing
- Trying to coach from the sidelines
- Going up to refs after the game to tell them how bad of a job they did
- Physical Altercations
- Don't be a sore loser
- Don't yell at the ref/players
- Let the coaches do their job
- Telling the refs that they did a bad job after the game